

Ann stated that Morning Star was still sleeping.

Ann stated that she then took her six year old son, Jesse, to school and dropped him off. Ann stated that she had asked Jesse to do this, but that Jesse had told her that he could not do it, because he had to leave for work early.

Ann stated that upon arriving home, she finished breakfast and went down stairs.

Ann stated that Leslie was upstairs.

Ann stated that she heard gunshots, but could not remember how many.

Ann stated that she met Leslie in the stairway and that Leslie had asked Ann if she had heard the gunshots.

Ann stated that Leslie expressed concern for Chad after hearing the gunshots.

Ann stated that Leslie had attempted to call Chad, by cell phone, but Chad was not answering.

Ann stated that Leslie showered for work, and then went out to check on Chad.

Ann stated that she then received a call from Leslie that lasted for around 15 to 20 seconds. Ann stated that she remembers Leslie screaming and crying into the phone, stating Chad's name, and saying, "Who would do this?" Ann stated that the phone then went dead.

Ann then called her husband, got ready to go out to Leslie.

Ann stated that upon walking outside, she talked with Lisa and Lisa asked her if it was true.

I asked Ann if there had been any altercations, disputes, fights between family members recently. Ann stated that there had not been and that everyone was getting along well.

I asked Ann if she knew of anyone who would want to kill Chad. She stated that she did not, but there had been an individual who came to the house approximately 2 weeks ago who seemed upset when he asked for Chad and Chad was not home.

Upon further investigation, I found out this individual was Patrick Warren.

I then talked with Thomas Covington, DOB:12/11/1987

Thomas stated that Leslie woke him up for school. He stated that he saw Chad in the kitchen and Chad was getting a cup of coffee. Thomas stated that he fake punched Chad
