

Based on the foregoing, Appellant Counsel was ineffective due to the failure to request and provide additional discovery that surfaced throughout Petitioners trial and Sentencing.

Failing to do so did not allow Petitioner on his direct appeal to expose Trial Counsels ineffectiveness that was raised in Ground F, which ultimately denied him his right to a meaning full review.